

Sponsor Invite Letter
Western Regional Joint Threat Assessment Training
May 28 & 29, 2024

You are invited to join Montana State University Police and the Association of Threat Assessment Professionals for the Western Regional Joint Threat Assessment Training, on May 28 & 29, 2025 at the Montana State University SUB Ballroom in Bozeman, MT. WRJTAT is focused on bringing targeted violence prevention professionals together and highlighting the cutting-edge and dynamic aspects of the field of threat assessment and management. We will introduce some new and exciting speakers, who can share their knowledge and experience with our attendees.

There will be an estimated 200 threat assessment professionals in attendance ranging from behavioral intervention team members, school resource officers, law enforcement, school safety officials, public safety personnel, mental health professionals, event security staff, venue managers, emergency management personnel, risk managers, human resources, corporate security, legal personnel, school administrators, teachers, to other professionals involved in threat assessment or targeted violence prevention.

Training attendees will want to talk with representatives from your organization about how your products and services can better assist them in reaching their safety and security goals. Your organization is invited to be an exhibitor and sponsor at our conference.
