

MSU
EMERGENCY RESPONSE ORGANIZATION CHART

STRATEGIC
INSTITUTIONAL RESPONSE GROUP (IRG)
Comprised of:
•University President	•Provost
•University Legal Counsel	•VP Administration & Finance
•VP Student Success	•Chief Information Officer
•Executive Director - University Communications
•VP Research, Creativity & Technology Transfer

The Institutional Response Group (IRG) is the senior administrative team charged with developing the institutional strategy and overall direction during a campus emergency, a natural disaster or an incident with potential significant reputational risk to the institution.

TACTICAL/SUPPORT
EMERGENCY OPERATIONS CENTER (EOC) MANAGEMENT TEAM
Comprised of:
•EOC Commander	•Operations Section Chief
•Planning Section Chief	•Logistics Section Chief
•Finance Section Chief	•Public Information Officer
•Safety Officer	•Pertinent Building Supervisor(s)

The EOC Management Team serves as the tactical arm of the IRG by creating plans to implement strategies developed by the IRG; evaluating the incident as it unfolds; and adapting tactics to match the scope and direction of the emergency. The EOC Management Team serves as the single point of contact for field emergency response operations and coordinates response efforts between on-scene responders and executive management.

TACTICAL/ON-SCENE
INCIDENT COMMAND
•On-Scene Incident Commander
•Other On-Scene Emergency Response Resources e.g.,
•MSU Police
•Outside Law Enforcement Entities
•Fire Dept
•EMT's
•Facillites/SRM Personnel

Incident Command (IC) consists of the on-scene resources and command structure required to handle the critical incident at the scene. Resources and command structure are scalable as necessary throughout the course of the incident.
